

Welsh Wines From Ancre Hill Estates

Ancre Hill Estates is a family run business comprising husband and wife team Richard and Joy and son David. Set in the middle of the Wye Valley, an area of outstanding natural beauty, the vineyard is blessed with its own unique meso-climate, surrounded by tree topped hills on all sides, with the famous Brecon Beacons to the north. The adoption of Biodynamic practices from 2011 should help them maintain this beautiful piece of Wales and protect the integrity of their vines.

Richard explains that Dave is the real driving force behind the business. Armed with a BSc in Viticulture & Oenology gained at Plumpton College (part of Brighton University) in 2009, Dave then spent a couple of years working for Biodynamic wine producers in France (Champagne, Burgundy & Roussillon) and for James Millton in New Zealand. With this experience in his locker Dave joined the family wine business in 2011 and the rest is history as they say!
